Our vision for the future remains focused on nurturing well-rounded individuals who contribute positively to their communities. Upcoming events include as Ramanujan Week, Sports day, and STEM celebrations will further support our students' academic and personal growth.

Parent and Teacher Collaboration

We also recognize the vital role parents and teachers play in shaping our students' lives.

We encourage parents to engage with their children and share experiences from their own lives to help foster resilience and understanding. It is important to teach children that both success and failures are part of life's journey, and that smart work and perseverance are key to overcoming challenges.

In a national conference organised by Chempaka Research and Training Centre in the month of September, our key note speaker Prof Dr MKC Nair, Founder Director of CDC , shared a research study highlighting the significant impact a positive home and school environment has on the developing brain.

In contrast, excessive screen time, prolonged video gaming, and social media addiction can have the opposite effect, negatively influencing brain development and behaviour in young children.

In present times, our adolescents- face so many issues, fear of missing out, social comparison, bullying, academic pressure. Let us be a good mentor to them.

It's humanly impossible for success and joy at all times. Unless we fail, how can we experience the joy of success?

The value of shade under a tree can be understood only when we walk for miles in the scorching sun.

'AAINA'-2024

School day 2024, "AAINA", the word captures not only the physical aspect of the mirror but also its symbolic significance in terms of self-reflection and truth.

The theme invites students to reflect on their actions and the impact they have on both their immediate surroundings and the broader community, a time for self-examination and personal growth.

Through the lens of a magical mirror, we glimpse the past, present and future. We celebrate the richness of diversity and embrace the idea of global citizenship.

Thank you all for your continued support. Together, let's work towards creating a brighter future for our students.

Throughout the year, our students excelled in a variety of academic and cultural events. From Model United Nations (MUN) conferences to cultural fests and athletic meets, our students have made us proud with their performances.

CLIMATE CHANGE - A CLUB ACTIVITY

'Climate change is a pressing issue with significant impacts', said Ms.Anushreedha, the guest speaker. Global temperature rise and melting ice caps are evident. This is not a distant threat; weather patterns have changed, leading to more frequent and severe extreme weather events. Addressing this requires a shift to renewable energy and afforestation to mitigate and adapt to these changes.

Lucas finds his hero

Lucas, a 10-year-old boy, lives with his father, mother, and his pet cat Pussy. One day, Lucas' father and mother were going to work as usual as they work in the same office. It was Saturday, so it was a holiday for Lucas. As hours passed, both Lucas and Pussy started getting very bored. As the clock hit four, he started getting tensed because he knew that his parents will come home at 3'o 'clock. Hours went by, but there was no sign of his parents. He went out to seek for help to contact his parents. He asked many people but all of them ignored him. Finally, he approached a tall man who was tall man who was wearing a black coat and pants, and a black hat! The man said with a smile. "Don't worry brave young man, I will call your parents." Lucas was relieved, and the tall man called his parents. His parents said that a landslide had occurred on their way home. Now, all the soil on the road has been cleared and they would reach soon. Lucas' parents promised that they would take him on Sunday! Lucas bowed his head to express gratitude to the man. Lucas ran off to his house happily.

AI
A Boon or a Bane?

Before we jump into the advantages and disadvantages of artificial intelligence, let us first understand what AI is. From a bird's-eye view, AI provides a computer program with the ability to think and learn on its own. It is a simulation of human intelligence in machines, enabling them to perform tasks that we normally rely on humans to do.

Some Advantages of AI:

One of the most significant benefits of artificial intelligence is that it can greatly reduce errors and improve accuracy and precision. Another major advantage is that AI can help humans overcome many risks by taking on dangerous tasks.

AI-powered systems are available 24/7, unlike humans who need rest. AI technologies excel at recognizing patterns in large datasets and can be used to solve complex problems across various fields.

Some Disadvantages of AI:

The rise of AI and automation poses a significant risk to employment, particularly in industries that rely on routine and repetitive tasks. As society becomes increasingly dependent on AI, there is a growing risk of over-reliance on technology. The increasing use of AI for tasks ranging from mundane chores to complex decision-making can lead to human laziness.

Christmas Cheers

Oh, when the bells ring,
You know the time has come.
Presents your friends would bring
You would wait for Santa to come.

When you hear the joyous screams,
Hurry up! and pick up your trees.
The stars will glow
While you play in the snow.

Have your biscuits and tea,
Spend some time with your family,
While the moon glows happily.
You would wait for your cake patiently.

While Santa would bring Presents for you
The sky would turn into a darker blue.
You must hang your bells
And enjoy your Christmas well.

The Periwinkle's New Home

Once upon a time, a beautiful Periwinkle flower bloomed in a garden. One day, a mirror was placed beside it. As the sun shone, the mirror reflected the flower's lovely colours. Suddenly, the mirror started to glow, and the flower's image went inside the mirror. From that moment, the flower's spirit resided within the mirror. When people looked into the mirror, they saw their own reflection, but also the Periwinkle flower's pretty petals. Through the mirror, people discovered the enchanting beauty of nature. The Periwinkle flower and the mirror became friends, spreading joy and wonder to all who saw them.

My Journey in the CISCE Basketball Tournament

I had an amazing experience participating in the CISCE Basketball competition at Loyola. We reached Loyola in the morning and took part in the opening ceremony. Ten minutes before the game started, we warmed up. We tried our best, and I managed to score five points, but unfortunately, we lost 7-10 to Loyola. We were all very disappointed by the loss. However, to my surprise, I was selected to represent Zone A at the regional level in Thrissur. My team gave it our all and secured second place.

Later, a second round of selection was held, and I was chosen for the CISCE Kerala team. Now, I am excited to play in Noida, representing Kerala at the national level!

MIRROR

Oh! That mirror on the wall
A dear friend it shall always be,
For it cannot lie,
Nor can it deceive.
It reminds me that I am special
Not to worry, nor to grieve.

It is the best audience,
For it never tires of watching my acts.
And when I am done,
The opinion it forms is so clear
I can see it myself in its glare.

The mirror reflects each one of us
Our differences,
Our perspectives,
Our preferences.

And thus,
When we are happy with who we are,
The face in the mirror
Smiles back at us.

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER

In our modern world, where information flows like a river, the age-old saying "Knowledge is power" suggests that the more we know, the more control we have over our lives and surroundings. Knowledge equips us with the tools to make informed decisions, solve problems, and understand the world in ways that might otherwise seem daunting. It is not just about academic success; it plays a crucial role in everyday life. Moreover, knowledge is the foundation of innovation and progress.

In conclusion, knowledge gives us the ability to navigate life with great confidence.

THE CYCLONE'S MISHAP

As I turned on the radio, the announcer said, "The cyclone, now affecting all districts, will continue throughout the day..." I switched it off in despair.

This was the third time a cyclone had struck our town. Every time I heard about it, it drove me crazy. I panicked and became clumsy. I never liked natural disasters anyway—they always sent a shiver down my spine.

I took a deep breath and drank some coffee. But something made me panic even more. I was in a café. What if the cyclone struck while I was drinking my coffee?

My thoughts were interrupted by a phone call. It was my colleague from the office.

I answered.

"Hey, have you typed out the important documents you need to submit tomorrow? You know the boss gets angry very easily," he said.

"Yeah, don't worry. I got it all covered. It took me five hours to get this much done," I replied.

"Good job, but don't forget to bring them, okay?"

"No, I won't. Bye."

I finished my coffee, paid the bill, and stepped out.

It was really windy. Near me, an umbrella flew by. Now, that was something you didn't see every day.

I opened my bag and took out the documents I had typed. I wanted to make sure everything was in order.

And that was when disaster struck. All the papers flew away with the wind.

That's when I realized how stupid I was.

I ran after the papers, trying to catch them, but the wind wasn't kind at all. It made the papers wiggle out of my reach.

I ran through the streets, trying to keep up. Everyone stared at me like I had just arrived from another planet. I hated that.

The papers flew through a circus tent. Oh no.

'I don't even care. My focus is only on the papers,' I thought as I ran into the tent. The show was on.

I ran onto the stage, ignoring a man who shouted, "Hey! Where's your ticket?"

One paper was floating above the tightrope, high above the entire stage.

Ignoring the shouts from the crowd, I climbed up the ladder to the tightrope. Without thinking twice, I ran across the rope. My only fear was what would happen if I didn't get the documents back. The boss would fire me.

I jumped up, reached for the paper, grabbed it, and tossed it into my bag. Without paying attention to the applause and cheers, I climbed down the ladder and ran off to find the rest of the papers.

I ran all over town, searching for them. A lot of them were in weird places, but I was too focused on retrieving them to notice my surroundings.

Two hours later, I finally sat down on my couch. I was home at last. These papers had better get me a promotion—I had spent so much time chasing after them!

I turned on the news.

"A mysterious man was sighted by several people in town! He made them laugh and left them in awe! He was first spotted in a circus tent, fearlessly running across the tightrope!"

I dropped the pizza slice I was holding.

"He even stopped a thief who was trying to steal a lady's purse!"

Wait. That was a thief? I had bumped into him by accident while chasing a paper.

"He also saved a man from harm by catching him before he fell off a ladder!"

Wait, I didn't remember that. What else had I done?

Well, anyway, I was happy—because now I was famous!

I couldn't wait for tomorrow. People would probably start crowding around my house.

And I couldn't wait to see the look on my boss's face.

BANGLORE BLISS

I went to Bangalore during my summer vacation and had a great time there. The first thing we did was go to the domestic airport in Thiruvananthapuram. After reaching there, we had dinner as it was around 8:30 p.m. Soon, it was time to board our flight. Around midnight, we reached Bangalore, checked into our hotel, and went to sleep.

The next day, we booked a bus for sightseeing. Our first stop was the ISKCON temple. Next, we visited Sultan's Palace, an old but grand palace with a large front yard. After that, we went to the Karnataka Silk Centre, where we saw many carpets and sarees.

Later, we visited a temple dedicated to Lord Ganapathy. Though it was a small temple, it was crowded with many devotees. After praying, we exited the temple and proceeded to Tipu Sultan's palace. Compared to the ISKCON temple, it was much larger than an average temple. We prayed there as well.

Our next visit was to the Bull Temple. By then, it was noon, so we had lunch. Afterward, we went to the famous Lal Bagh, followed by the Visvesvaraya Technological Museum. The museum visit was very informative, giving me firsthand knowledge of the technological and engineering advancements made over the years. It was a sprawling three-story building with numerous exhibits, each with detailed inscriptions.

By then, it was time for our return flight. We returned to our hotel room, freshened up, and headed to the airport. After having dinner there, we boarded our flight and reached back in Thiruvananthapuram.

COMPASSION IN ACTION

On September 12th, students from L'école Chempaka Serene Valley, specifically from the Grade 9 Bluebells class, visited the Govt. Vocational Higher Secondary School in Mulavana Anakudy. This visit was part of our annual donation initiative, where we distributed Onam kits, continuing our tradition akin to the Christmas donations made each year.

The host school warmly welcomed us, creating an environment conducive to interaction between students from both institutions. This engagement fostered a sense of community and camaraderie. To enhance the festive atmosphere, our students performed an energetic dance, a melodious song, and an engaging keyboard performance, all of which were well-received by the audience.

Following the performances and the distribution of the Onam kits, we were taken to a nearby lake, where we enjoyed a glimpse of the serene beauty characteristic of the rural surroundings. This excursion provided a refreshing contrast to our usual environment and added to the overall experience.This visit truly made Onam 2K24 special. We, Grade 9 Bluebell, extend my heartfelt gratitude to our principal and facilitators for providing us with this valuable opportunity for exposure and community engagement.

The Grade V students visited Little Lower Primary School to assist families during the festive season. As part of their outreach efforts, they distributed Onam Kits and inspired the students by participating in a group song.

Shimmering Singapore

Last April, when my father announced that we were going to Singapore, I jumped with joy. We were so excited - it was my first ever overseas trip!

Day 1:
We reached Changi International Airport, Singapore, early in the morning after a four-hour flight. After checking in at the hotel, we had a scrumptious breakfast and soon set off for sightseeing.

In the afternoon, we visited the Singapore Zoo, famous for housing the largest captive colony of orangutans in the world. We boarded the tram, which took us to different spots in and around the zoo. We saw various species of exotic animals and enjoyed a seal show that conveyed an important message about keeping the environment pollution-free.

Day 2:
The next day, we visited Universal Studios, the renowned film studio behind many famous movies. The park had several thrilling rides and numerous gift shops. We explored as many rides as we could and bought some souvenirs to take home.

Day 3:
On the third day, we went to Gardens by the Bay and Sentosa Island. First, we explored the Flower Dome, filled with a breathtaking variety of blooming flowers, including cherry blossoms seasonal flower rarely found in Southeast Asia. We also visited the Super tree Grove, which offered a panoramic view of Singapore's vast expanse.

Our driver explained that the word Sentosa means "happiness," just like in our mother tongue. We reached the island via a scenic cable car ride. Our first stop was the S.E.A. Aquarium, where we saw fascinating marine creatures. Then, we visited Madame Tussauds, a museum showcasing wax sculptures of famous personalities, created in honour of Anna Maria 'Marie' Tussaud, a French artist known for her wax figures.

We ended the day with the spectacular nighttime show, 'Wings of Time', a breathtaking display of lights, water, and sound.

Day 4:

On our last day, we explored the city and went on a shopping spree. The town was filled with luxurious skyscrapers boasting marvellous architecture. We bought souvenirs and visited the Kwan Im Thong Hood Cho Buddhist Temple near Chinatown.

Next, we rode the Singapore Flyer, a giant observation wheel that gave us stunning views of the city. Of course, no trip to Singapore is complete without seeing its iconic symbol - the Merlion, a statue with a lion's head and a fish's body. We took several photos until my phone's gallery ran out of space!

After an unforgettable four-day trip, we boarded our flight home. During our stay, we also had a wonderful time reconnecting with some family friends. Singapore is a truly remarkable country, and I would love to visit it again and again. If you ever get the chance, don't miss it!

KASHMIR VIBES

The Smell of the Lakes and the Feeling of the Woods

When my family and I landed at Srinagar Airport, the freezing cold greeted us immediately. We had to pull out our warm clothes right inside the airport to stay warm. Even at night, we encountered a few traffic jams along the way. What struck me most about Kashmir were the stunning snow-covered mountains and saffron fields. Mornings were filled with the peaceful sound of birds chirping.

Over the course of five days, we explored major tourist spots like Pahalgam and Sonamarg. The Shikara ride on Dal Lake was unforgettable, though heavy rain and snowfall prevented us from visiting Gulmarg.

Pahalgam's scenery was absolutely breathtaking. Lush green trees blanketed the majestic mountains, creating a view that was both awe-inspiring and calming. The entire experience left a deep impression on us. However, Sonamarg was the most beautiful place I 've ever visited. The snowfall and snow-covered landscapes were mesmerizing, and playing in the snow was pure joy.

We also explored local attractions and enjoyed the diverse cuisine of Kashmir. A visit to Chai Jai Café was particularly delightful, with its exceptional desserts leaving us thoroughly impressed. By the end of the trip, we had made unforgettable memories and left with hearts full of wonder. As they say, Kashmir truly is Heaven on Earth.

AN UNHAPPY EXPERIMENT

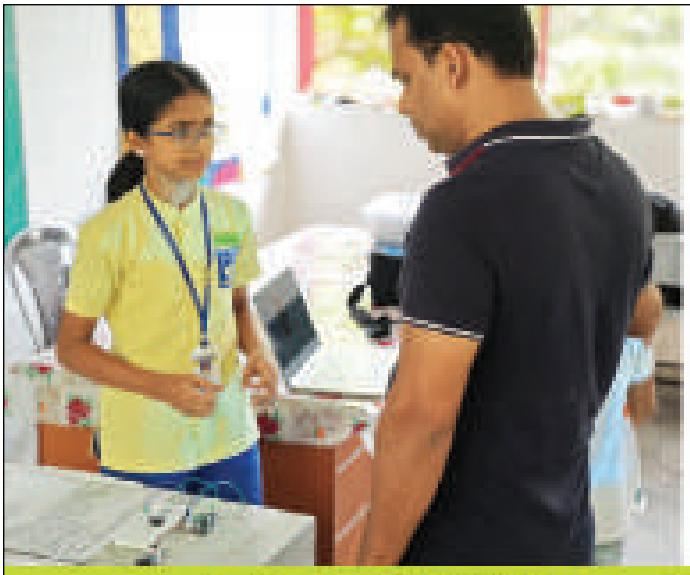

I penned down an experience of my friend that had a simple but deep influence on me. No one in Ramakrishnan's home smokes - not even his relatives. However, whenever he attends a function, he sees many people smoking together, blissfully and merrily. It seems to give them happiness, doesn't it? This is what made him decide to test it himself.
One day, he got hold of a cigarette at a function hall, took a matchbox, and sneaked into the backyard. He held the cigarette between his lips, and after five attempts, he finally managed to light it. Proudly, he took the lit cigarette between his fingers and inhaled deeply.

Lol! Hell broke loose. He started coughing and sneezing all at once. He grabbed a glass of water and sipped it with difficulty.
When he regained his senses, he felt ashamed of his failed experiment and was also frightened of the consequences with his mom and dad. His mother gave him a long lecture on the ill effects of smoking, drinking, and dangerous drugs. But what surprised him most was his father's calmness.
"It is not good for you," his dad said.
The following Saturday, his father brought chocolates, children's books, and toys. Then, he took Ramakrishnan to a big building- the Regional Cancer Centre (RCC). A doctor accompanied them as they passed through corridors and halls, the strong smell of medicine filling the air.
They arrived at a section where many ailing people were strolling around - some with disfigured mouths, others groaning in pain. No one could stay there for long. The doctor explained that most of these patients were victims of poor lifestyle choices, including smoking, drinking, and drug use. Some had even more aggressive forms of cancer, possibly caused by contaminated vegetables and food available in the market.
In the next hall, there were children suffering from various abnormalities. Despite their pain, their faces lit up upon seeing the gifts. Some eagerly came forward, reaching for the toys and children's books.
On the way back, seated comfortably in his car, Ramakrishnan was deep in thought. Suddenly, an enlightenment flashed in his mind. He remembered his dad's words about never slipping into a bad lifestyle. At that moment, he made a firm decision- he would never smoke, drink, or use dangerous drugs.

On July 20, 2024, senior students at L'école Chempaka Serene Valley participated in an engaging exhibition organized by HOWNWHY. The event focused on various technological topics, including robotic dogs, line-following robots, drones, and virtual reality. My teammate Sreevardhan and I were assigned the topic of virtual reality, guided by our mentors Dheeraj sir, Hitha ma'am, and Leo sir. It was my first experience using a VR headset, which was truly fascinating. I also had the opportunity to see robotic dogs in person, a sight I had previously only encountered on social media. The exhibition featured demonstrations of everyday technology, such as ID card scanners for security and automated food-serving robots in restaurants. This event not only enhanced our public speaking and knowledge but also fostered camaraderie among students from different grades. The dedication of our mentors was evident in the quality of the presentations, and we all improved our time management skills. As Chempakites, we eagerly anticipate more successful events like this in the future.

MY SUMMER JOURNEY THROUGH KOREA

This summer vacation, I was lucky enough to visit two beautiful countries, South Korea, and Thailand. It was my dream to visit South Korea. When I first went there on May 9th 2024, I was so excited. I was jumping with joy. We stayed in the Lotte hotel near Myeong Dong Street. It was early in the morning, but when we left Trivandrum, it was 10 pm and the flight was 7 hours long, but it was worth it to reach the beautiful country of South Korea. When we arrived, we went through customs, and it took some time, but it finally ended. Then we met our very friendly tour guide, Mister Park Nohill, and then he took us to our amazing hotel and checked us in. We then took some hours to rest because the flight was long. After that, we decided not to use a car on the first day and walked to Myeongdong Street on our way there. It was so cold so we wore jackets and coats. We went to Star Avenue on our way to Myeongdong, and we saw popular Korean K-pop stars prints and all about K-pop and stuff. After that, when we reached Myeongdong Street, it was so nice. And one of my favourite places we visited. One thing that surprised me about Korea, was how cute everything was, seriously, even the police department! The best part was the food. There were food stalls everywhere, and I got to try so much and, Myeongdong street was super lively, especially in the evenings when the streets get crowded with many people, so it was hard to get through crowds, but it was worth it.

Day 2 May 11 (sat)

My brother and I were sharing a room at the hotel, and so he would have to wake me up, and it was great fun. When he would wake me up, he would play, baby shark, at full volume so that, so that I would have to get up and hit him with my pillow so that I would not go back to sleep, and that was at like 5 am. After that, we went to eat breakfast at the hotel, and it was perfect food and such a nice restaurant. Then Mr Park came to pick us up, and we went to Coex mall. In the mall, there was an aquarium, and it was very big. After Mr Park got us a ticket, he left. At first, it was quite boring and there were no nice fish there, but after that, there were seals that were doing obstacle courses and penguins and axolotls and sharks etc. After that, we went shopping and stuff, but nothing too interesting or very cute stuff. After shopping, we went to Starfield library, and it is a very big library, but we didn't borrow any books because we could not return them later because we had other things to do. Then I got very nice outfits that I wore for the rest of the day. So, after there was so much stuff planned, but we were so tired, we cancelled some.

Day 3 (sun)

On day three, we got ready, and we got enough sleep, finally! Then we went with Mr Park to the Yongsan War Museum and learned about Korean War history. Then my favourite part of day 3, A PET CAFÉ. I got to see so many cute dogs and cats but not any exotic animals though. My favourite dog was a Pomeranian and he/ she was so cute and nice to everyone. And the pets there were highly trained, like they knew how to sit, and stand, spin etc. we left and went to eat lunch, and I am not exaggerating the food there was to die, for I liked that Korean barbecue place so much more than the other restaurants in Korea. Then just across the street I saw a very nice clothing shop and bought so many clothes. On our way back, we were walking and saw a lamb café and didn't go in, but we saw the lamb. After other small things, we went to Gyeongbokgung palace and got to wear traditional Korean emperors' outfit and I became a Korean princess and I went to an old Korean temple outside. It was so fun but so hot.

Day 4

On the 4th day of Korea we went to Lotte department store which is the store connected to our hotel. Later we went to the tallest building in South Korea which was Lotte world tower in that building there was 123 floors and is the sixth tallest building in the world. And it has the world's highest glass skywalk in the world. After that, we went to the Korean War Museum (Yonsan war museum) and there was all kinds of statues and very detailed art about the Korean was and it was very nice and fancy. Then after at the end of the day we visited Cheonggyecheon stream and its walkway, which was so scenic. And the water was so cold then we took a lot of photos and it was very fun.

Day 5

This was the last day in Korea and everyone was so sad it had come to an end. We first went to my favourite part of the trip, Lotte World. Lotte World is an amusement park. It is divided into two parts: Lotte World adventure and, magic island, an outdoor themed area. Lotte World had 22 different rides! It also hosted some parades and shows, but I didn't go to them because I was too busy with the rides. The rides were the fastest I have been on, and I loved them, but we couldn't spend the whole day in the lotte world because we had to pack our bags. Despite that, I was very grateful for that day.

Day 6 (and a half)

I started that day early, before the sunrise. I knew I had to leave Korea that day and I made sure to enjoy every moment. My family had already packed everything so we went early to eat breakfast. I had to say my goodbyes to our tour guide, Mr Park, and missed seeing him waiting for us in our lobby. We then took a van and then went to the airport. Boarding the plane, I had a wonderful time in Korea and prepared myself to go to the louder, warmer, and different Thailand. But that story is for another time.

Health is wealth

Nowadays, people forget priority in life, health
Teenagers' spurge on unhealthy activities,
Just to be known or popular,
Is it worth it? It surely is not.
Our health is supposed to be the top priority,
Not like parties.
For example, without our hands
How can we eat or write?
We just can't.
Every human is unique.
Just like how our body parts help us do unique things,
Let's not forget health is wealth!!!

THE SCAR

There was once a twelve-year-old boy named Jules. He was a popular child at his school. He was funny, extremely good-looking, and smart. Overall, you can say, he was almost perfect. However, there was only one thing that bothered Jules and that was his older brother Aiden. Aiden had a big scar just below his left eyebrow which made his face look ugly. As you can guess, this was exactly the reason why Jules hated Aiden, because his friends mocked him about the scar his older brother had. But Aiden still loved his younger brother. He worked to pay for their expenses as their parents had passed away when they were very young.

One day it was parent – teacher's day at school. All the students showed up with their parents except Jules. Usually Aiden attended such meetings, but Jules did not like them all. Aiden arrived at Jules' classroom. As soon as he entered the classroom, all of Jules' classmates started laughing and mocking Aiden for the big scar. Jules was angry at Aiden for humiliating him in front of his classmates and asked Aiden to leave. Aiden was upset, but he agreed. Years passed and Jules was older now. He was married and had two children. One day, the doorbell rang, and the children went to open the door. It was Aiden and he smiled at the children. But the kids got scared upon seeing the big scar and ran to their father for help. Jules went to the door to see what had frightened them. He saw Aiden standing at the door.

He scornfully asked Aiden what he wanted. Aiden explained that he had been diagnosed with cancer recently and needed money for his treatment. He asked Jules whether he could help him, as Jules was financially well off. Jules had a scornful laugh. He asked Aiden how he could expect him to pay for the treatment. He had hated Aiden his entire life. He asked Aiden to leave and not to disturb his family. Aiden was in tears, but did not stay to argue.

A few days later, Jules heard about Aiden's death. Then Jules began to wonder" why did Aiden have a scar on his face? "

He began to wonder, "Could there be a reason behind it?" Jules decided to reach out to their maternal uncle. He called his uncle and asked if they could meet. His uncle agreed. The next day, Jules reached his uncle's home. His uncle was his only relative other than Aiden. He had helped the brothers during their difficult times. "So, Jules," his uncle asked him, "what do you want to talk to me about?" Jules replied, well, umm, uncle, do you know how Aiden got his scar on the face?" His uncle's face suddenly became serious." Well," his uncle replied "I am glad you finally cared enough to ask that. If you really want to know, I will tell you. Years ago, when you were both very young, your home caught fire. Both your parents died in the fire. But Aiden rushed to your room and tried to save you. He saved you, but as a result, he got a scar."

Jules was shocked. He regretted hating his brother and not helping him. If he had helped, Aiden would still be alive and Jules could ask for his forgiveness for all those years of hatred and ungratefulness. Jules became a very successful businessman. One day he was giving an interview. The interviewer asked him whether he wanted to thank anyone for his success. Jules smiled and said in a sad voice, "I would like to thank my elder brother, Aiden. But unfortunately, it is too late. I wish I could have told him that I loved him and that he was my hero. He sighed and said "Sometimes, even though heroes are around, you just fail to notice them."

The Beauty of Nature

Nature is full of green,
The nature is so beautiful,
Plants are an important part of nature,
As they are in green colour.

Never ever destroy our nature,
Ocean and sea are a part of nature.
Nowadays, we destroy them too,
In the future, the impact of that will be a big issue.

The sky sometimes looks like a paint box.
By changing its colour,
To build building for us,
We are destroying nature, which is also playing important role in our lives.

We know the ways to make the nature beautiful,
We sometimes behave like the nature is here for us as a dustbin,
However, the beauty of nature remains the same
We can stop polluting the nature,
But we still destroy the nature,
Just observe the beauty of nature,
We won't destroy the nature.
However, the beauty of nature remains the same.

Mona Lisa, chef-d'œuvre de l'art de la Renaissance

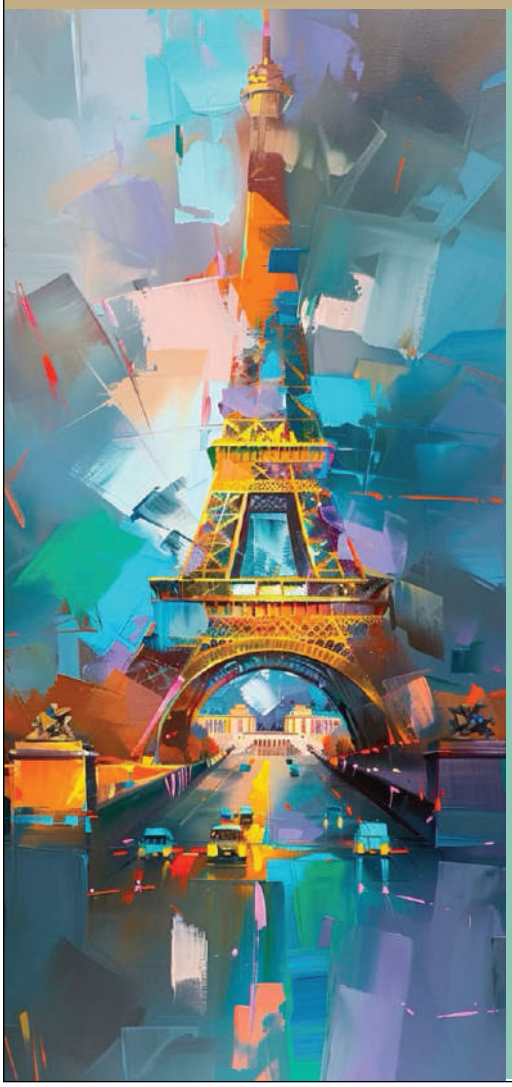

La Joconde est un chef-d'œuvre de l'art de la Renaissance, mettant en valeur l'incroyable talent et l'attention portée aux détails de Léonard de Vinci. La peinture atteint un niveau de réalisme incroyable qui crée une sensation de profondeur et de volume qui attire le spectateur.
Aujourd'hui, la Joconde est plus qu'un simple tableau : c'est une icône culturelle. Elle a été parodiée, usurpée et référencée dans d'innombrables œuvres d'art, de littérature et de culture populaire. Son image a été utilisée dans la publicité, la mode et même la musique, consolidant ainsi son statut de phénomène mondial.

Adolescence is often accompanied by a rollercoaster of emotions. Mood swings, heightened sensitivity, and increased self-consciousness are common experiences. These emotional fluctuations can be influenced by various factors, including hormonal changes, peer pressure, and academic stress.

"Oh! That's because I'm one of the few animals having true blue pigment!

THE BICYCLE OF FRIENDSHIP

Once upon a time in a village, there were two boys, Ravi and Arun. They were best friends, full of energy, and always looking for adventure. However, they longed to have a bicycle of their own.

One day, as they were wandering around the village, they saw an old, rusty bicycle lying abandoned near the riverbank. To Ravi and Arun, it was a treasure. However, they didn't have enough money to repair it. Determined, they decided to do small jobs at the market every afternoon after school.

After weeks of hard work, they finally saved enough money to repair the bicycle. Since they had only one, they decided to take turns riding it so that both could enjoy it equally.

The bicycle became more than just a mode of transportation—it became a symbol of their friendship. It taught them the value of sharing and teamwork.

Years later, even after they had outgrown the bicycle, they kept it as a cherished reminder of their friendship and the memories they created together. Ravi and Arun remained best friends throughout their lives, always remembering the lessons they had learned from the old bicycle and the adventures it took them on.

FRIENDSHIP

THE MIRROR OF THE MIND

I had a best friend named Hisana Fathima. She was very sweet, lovely, and caring. We were thick friends.One day in our class, the teacher gave us homework on GK. That night, she couldn't do the homework, so she asked her mother for help. But her mother was busy cooking. Then she asked her father, but he was busy with his office work. She felt helpless and became very gloomy.

At that time, I went to her home and saw that she was worried. I understood the reason and helped her with her homework. She became relieved.

The next day was Mother's Day. I wanted to buy some flowers for my mother, but unfortunately, the shops were closed. Then, I suddenly noticed a tree full of flowers near my home. I tried to pluck them, but I couldn't. I was disappointed. Just then, Hisana arrived, climbed the tree, and plucked the flowers for me. I was so happy!

We both helped each other in our troubles, just like mirrors of the mind.

THE TIMELESS GAME OF CHESS: A BATTLE OF WITS AND STRATEGY

Chess, often referred to as the "Game of Kings," is a timeless strategic board game that has fascinated minds for centuries. It is not just a game but an intellectual battle that combines tactical thinking, foresight, and patience. The origins of chess can be traced back to India around the 6th century AD, where it was known as Chaturanga. Over time, it spread to Persia, the Islamic world, and eventually Europe, evolving into the modern game we know today.

The Chessboard and Its Pieces

Chess is played on an 8x8 square board, consisting of 64 alternating black and white squares. Each player starts with 16 pieces: one king, one queen, two rooks, two knights, two bishops, and eight pawns. Each piece moves uniquely across the board. For instance, the bishop moves diagonally, the rook moves horizontally or vertically, and the knight moves in an "L" shape. The queen, the most powerful piece, can move in any direction, while the king, the most vital piece, can move only one square in any direction.

The objective of the game is simple yet profound: to checkmate the opponent's king. This means putting the king in a position where it cannot escape capture. While the objective is straightforward, achieving it requires a deep understanding of strategy, tactics, and the ability to anticipate the opponent€™s moves.

Chess is more than just a game; it is both an art form and a science. It represents a battle of wits, where players must think several moves ahead and anticipate their opponent’s strategies. It fosters critical thinking, patience, and creativity, offering a unique blend of competition and intellectual engagement. Chess is a language spoken worldwide, transcending cultural and linguistic barriers. Whether played for leisure or at a professional level, the beauty of chess lies in its infinite possibilities and the never-ending quest to master it.

KARATE:

THE ART OF STRENGTH, SPIRIT, AND DISCIPLINE.

Karate, which translates to "empty hand" in Japanese, is an unarmed martial art that emphasizes kicking, striking, and defensive blocking using various parts of the body. The goal is to generate maximum power at the precise moment of impact. Imagine knuckles, elbows, knees, and heels -" hardened through rigorous training -" delivering controlled force with precision. But where did karate originate? This martial art has a rich history that spans centuries and continents. Here's a brief look at its evolution:

1. East Asian Roots: Karate developed over time in East Asia, with its origins tracing back to Okinawa, an island off the coast of Japan. In the 17th century, the people of Okinawa, who were forbidden from carrying weapons, began systematizing hand-to-hand combat techniques, giving birth to what we now recognize as karate.
2. Japanese Influence: In the 1920s, karate was introduced to mainland Japan, where it gained popularity, thanks to Master Gichin Funakoshi. He is often called the "father of modern Karate-do" for his efforts in spreading and refining the art. His teachings led to the establishment of several karate schools, each emphasizing slightly different techniques and training methods.

As a dedicated karateka (Brown Belt, 4th Dan), I have had the privilege of competing in the CISCE Sports Tournament from the district level to state and even nationals!

THE MAHABHARATA

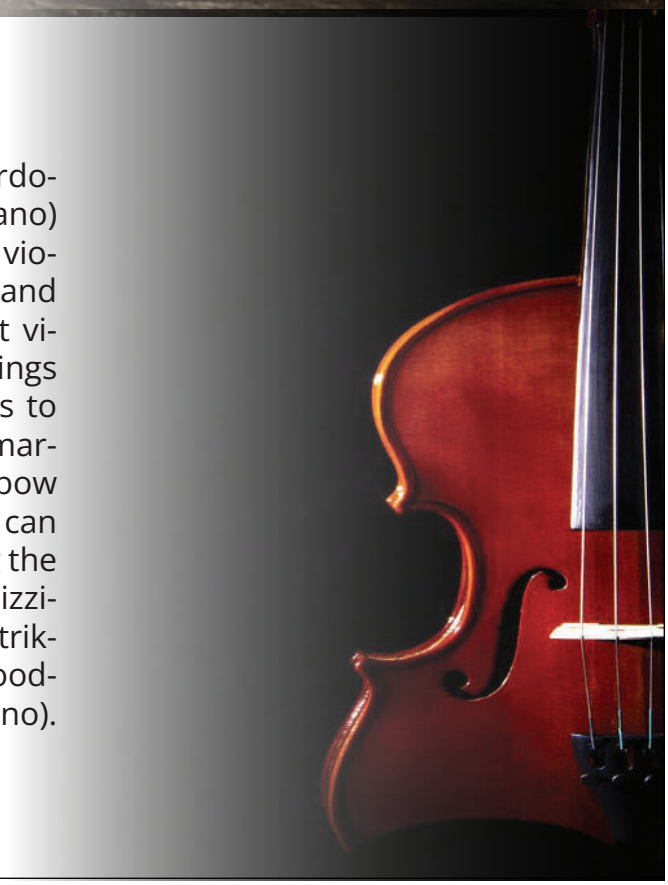

The Mahabharata is an ancient Indian epic, authored by Vyasa, that details the conflict between the Pandavas and the Kauravas over the throne of Hastinapura. This epic provides deep insights into human psychology, reflecting a wide spectrum of emotions and moral dilemmas. It explores themes of duty, righteousness, and the complexities of human relationships, making it a rich source for psychological analysis. The Mahabharata intricately portrays various human emotions, such as anger, jealousy, love, and guilt, illustrating how these feelings can lead to both personal and societal conflict. The epic characters often face moral dilemmas, highlighting the struggle between personal desires and ethical responsibilities. For instance, Arjuna's hesitation on the battlefield symbolizes the internal conflict between his duty as a warrior and his emotional ties to his family. This moment showcases the psychological turmoil that arises when values and emotions are in conflict.

THE VIOLIN

Often called a fiddle, the violin is a wooden chordophone and the smallest, highest-pitched (soprano) instrument in the violin family. While smaller violin-like instruments, such as the violin piccolo and the pochette, exist, they are rarely used. Most violins have a hollow wooden body and four strings (sometimes five), usually tuned in perfect fifths to the notes G3, D4, A4, and E5. The violin is primarily played by drawing a bow across the strings, but it can also be played by plucking the strings with the fingers (pizzicato) or, in some cases, by striking the strings with the wooden side of the bow (col legno).

Who is in My Bed?

Every night, before going to sleep, a father would check on his seven-year-old son. It had become their little routine.

One evening, he stepped into the dimly lit room, smiling at his son, who was already tucked under his blanket. But something felt different - his son's grin stretched a little too wide.

You okay, buddy? the father asked.

The boy nodded, still grinning." Daddy, check under my bed."

Chuckling, the father knelt down to look - just to humour him.

But under the bed, staring wide-eyed, lay his real son.

In a whisper, the boy said, "Daddy, there's someone on my bed."

A Mother's Call

One evening, a girl was upstairs doing her homework when she heard her mother call her for dinner. Smiling, she stood up and headed toward the stairs.

But just before she could take a step, gentle hands pulled her into the laundry room beside the staircase. She turned in surprise - only to see her real mother standing there, looking worried.

"Wait a second, honey, her mother whispered." I thought I heard my own voice calling you."

They both stood still, listening. The house was silent.

Essay selected by the Young Indian's Chapter on the topic

'How will the Vizhinjam International Seaport Change our Thiruvananthapuram?'

India's Maritime sector

India has been eyeing to become the global maritime leader by the year 2047. Kerala can have a significant role to play in that, given the existence of its extensive coastline of 590km and its scope for maritime activities. The Vizhinjam International Seaport Thiruvananthapuram is all set to play an important role in this endeavor.

Transshipment Hub

The Vizhinjam port marks the entry of India into the transshipment club. Unlike direct ports, transshipment hubs serve as crucial transfer points where cargo moves from large vessels to smaller ones for unloading. As of now, major transshipment hubs include Singapore, Shanghai, Busan, and Jebel Ali near Dubai.

Strategic Position

Vizhinjam's proximity to pristine beaches, historical sites, and cultural attractions makes it an ideal base for exploring Kerela's rich heritage. Tourist spots such as Kovalam, Varkala, Thiruvananthapuram, and the Padmanabhaswamy temple are located nearby.

Vizhinjam is located just ten nautical miles from the International Shipping route connecting Europe, the Persin Gulf, and the Far East. This is a great advantage as it can handle giant MegaMax container ships with a capacity of over 24,000 twenty-foot equivalent units, making it competitive on long-haul international shipping routes.

The port is also 16 km away from the Trivandrum International Airport thus facilitating efficient passenger and cargo transportation, potentially boosting air connectivity.

Connectivity

The port will be connected to the rest of the country through National Highway 66, improving road connectivity and conditions.

The third longest railway tunnel in India, which in under various initial approval phase at Vizhinjam will link it to the Vizhinjam International Seaport Thiruvanantha-puram with the railway mainline situated in Balaramapuram.

Economic Impact

By handling a sizable portion of India's transshipment cargo that currently go through foreign ports, Vizhinjam can boost the local economy through increased trade and coordination activities.

Fishing Communities

Local fishing communities have protested against the construction of the port, citing concerns over coastal erosion, loss of homes, and impact on livelihoods.

Ecosystem

A forthcoming study by experts has warned us that the construction of the port may harm the sensitive coastal and marine ecosystem present in the region.

Profits

The profits may accrue more to the Adani Group, the developers of the port, rather than directly benefiting the local Kerela economy.

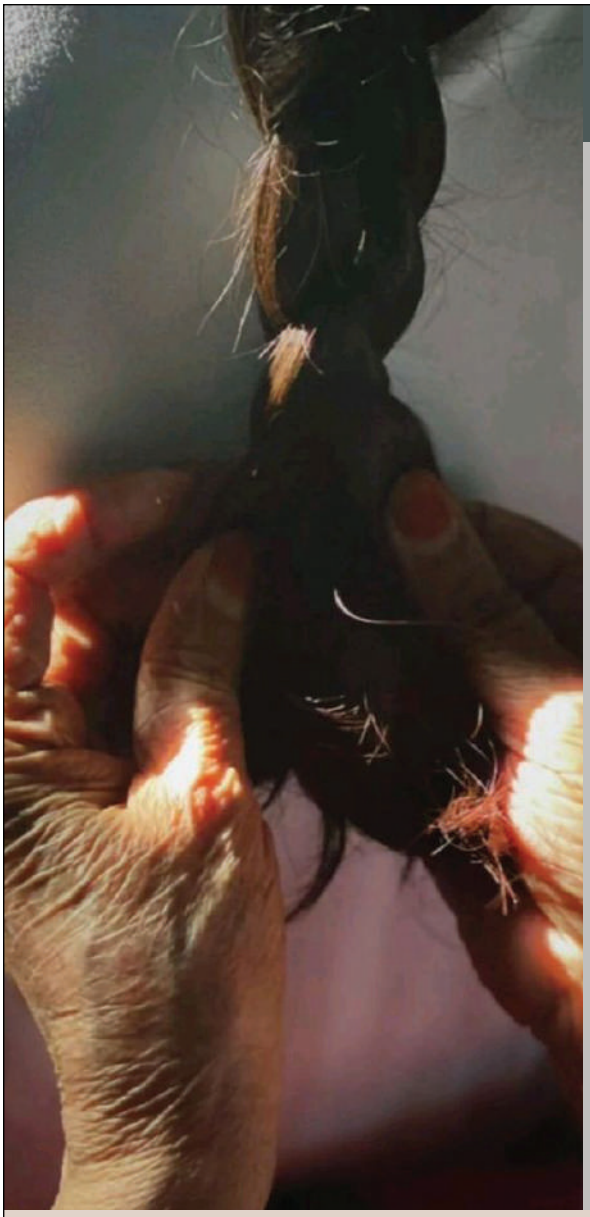

Legal Disputes

Legal conflicts between the Kerala government and the Adani Group over project delays can further complicate matters. Delays may impact on the overall timeline and cost of the project.

In short, the Vizhinjam port has the potential to boost Thiruvananthapuram's economy through increased trade and logistics activities, although there are significant concerns over its environmental and social impact on the local fishing communities. The economic benefits may also be enjoyed more by the port operator than the local Kerala economy. The port's full integration with the broader organization network is still a work in progress.

Emily's kindness

Once upon a time, there lived a poor little girl named Emily. She was a kind hearted child. Her family wasn't a wealthy one, but her parents taught her the importance of moral values such as kindness and helping others. One day, Emily went to the nearby market to buy some grains, but she didn't have any money. The shopkeeper got mad at her and refused to give her the grains. Emily offered to work in the shop to earn the necessary money. The shopkeeper agreed and asked her to dust the shelves. After completing the work, she earned enough money to buy the grains. On her way home, Emily saw a hungry grandmother. Emily offered some grains to the grandmother to which she replied "Child I wasn't hungry for the food but for the kindness". The grandma was a wise wealthy woman. She decided to reward Emily and gave her a pouch of gold coins. Emily returned home with a hand full of grains and heart full of joy. Emily's father said "My child, kindness can lead to serendipitous moments that can change lives."

They look like fishes that swim with their Fings
As they travel all day,

So, hurry up and get in the ship
And let's all go on an adventure.

Oh, My Mother, Oh My Mother,
Look at the ships in the night
They all have a tiny light
Which looks like stars twinkling in the night
Which makes me feel so happy

Oh, My Mother, Oh My Mother
Listen to me till the end
I just like to see a ship
So does I wanna live in it
And that would make me so happy.

Oh, My Mother, Oh My Mother
Look at the gift of mother nature
She gave us a little sea
and we made a ship. Oh, you see!
So come on, let us go and see.

Oh, My Mother, Oh My Mother

And you will see a bunch of ships,
They are going here and there and everywhere
Oh! yes, now you see, don't you mother.

Yes! A cocoon, I found
See , something comes out
Oh friends, no doubt
A lovely butterfly
Is ready to fly!

READ AND READ IN THE RAINY DAY

It was a rainy day at school. My classmates were doing revision, it was raining cats and dogs outside, the mist made the room dark. My teacher, Mrs. Collins was asleep so we got up with an alarm. I decided, to read my favourite book, Return of the Vampire by Geronimo Stilton. It's a thrilling book for sure. My classmates were busy doing revision and talking, while I was reading. The bell rang. the lunch period was over, after I fell asleep..... My classmate had, to wake me up. I was starving as all I could hear was my rumbling stomach, roaring and screeching. Next was history class. My teacher was talking, and I was still reading. I still remember my history teacher screaming 'Clara wakes up.' I was right awake and started. My history teacher can be grumpy but kind, well sometimes. My classmates and I decided to do revision again since history class was over. I was reading. It is fascinating. I cannot figure out the story. I was still reading and flipping pages on the bus, still so complicated. I arrived home without eating anything. I took a granite bar. My mother was cooking, but still, I did not even eat my dinner. Finally, it was time for bed. I decided to take my Creepella PJS which is my favourite book. Petty sure that I was reading before I stopped. I started to doze off.

SUNSET

Vibrant sunsets paint the sky,
Golden Haes that makes me sigh,
Nature's beauty, pure and true.
Fill's my heart with wonder anew.

In the stillness, I find peace,
A sense of calm, my worries release.
The world din fades from my sight,
As I bask in the gentle light.
Hope and joy, begin to bloom,
Like flowers in the warm sun's room.
My heart beats fast, my soul takes flight,
In this moment, "all in right."

OUR SOLAR SYSTEM

Mercury is small, near the sun,
Hot by day, but not much fun.
Venus is bright, with clouds in the sky,
It's the hottest planet, oh my!
Earth is our home, where we live,
It's got water, plants and life to give.
Mars is red, like a big dusty ball,
It has a volcano that's really tall.
Jupiter is big, the biggest of all,
With lots of moons that are small.
Saturn has rings, round and wide,
They go around and look so bright.
Uranus is cold, spinning on its side,
It's a blue planet, hard to hide.
Neptune is far, way out in space,
It's the coldest, fastest wind in the race.
These are the planets, big and small,
They go around the Sun, on and all.

SOORAJ'S SERENDIPITY

Once upon a time in a small village, on a bright sunny day, a baby boy was born into a poor family. His parents named him Sooraj, after the bright sun. Sooraj grew up to be smart and intelligent. When Sooraj was 8 years old, a flood hit his village and left everyone ruined. Sooraj wanted to help his family and the villagers.

While growing up, Sooraj had heard about hidden treasure in the Ohiosam cave beyond his village. He thought of going on a treasure hunt to retrieve the treasure. When he told his family about this, they told him that the treasure was a myth, and he would be disheartened. Despite all this, Sooraj was stubborn and wanted to help his whole village.

The very next day, Sooraj set off from his home. He had to cross rivers and mountains to reach the Ohiosam cave. It was pitch black inside the cave. Sooraj lighted his fire torch. He searched and searched the cave inside out. Sooraj continued his search for 3 days. He slept inside the cave and ate scraps in these 3 days. By the end of the 3rd day, Sooraj had given up his hope of finding the treasure. Just when he was about to start back home, his legs got trapped in a weird-shaped hole. Sooraj tried to get his legs out, but he couldn't.

Sooraj started to cry in despair. He felt thirsty, but there was only a little water in his bottle. In his frightened state, the bottle slipped from his hand and the water fell into the rock. To his astonishment, the water worked like a key. A flight of stairs opened down. He went down the stairs, there it was! The treasure that he was seeking. Sooraj jumped up and down with joy, seeing pots and pots filled with gold and diamonds. Sooraj returned triumphant to his village. Everyone in his village was overjoyed. Sooraj's serendipity helped his whole village.

ജീവിത പാഠങ്ങൾ

ഒരു ഗ്രാമത്തിൽ രണ്ടു കുടുംബങ്ങൾ ഉണ്ടായിരുന്നു. ആ കുടുംബങ്ങൾ തമ്മിൽ നല്ല അടുപ്പമായിരുന്നു. ആ വീടുകളിൽ രണ്ടു കുട്ടികളുണ്ടായിരുന്നു, അന്നയും സാറയും. അവർ രണ്ടുപേരും നല്ല സുഹൃത്തുക്കളായിരുന്നു. അച്ഛനും അമ്മയ്ക്കും നല്ല ജോലി കിട്ടിയതോടെ അവർ ധനികരായി മാറി. അതോടെ അവർ പട്ടണത്തിലേക്ക് താമസം മാറുകയും കുട്ടികളെ വലിയൊരു സ്കൂളിൽ ചേർക്കുകയും ചെയ്തു. അവർക്കവിടെ കൂട്ടുകാർ ആരുമുണ്ടായിരുന്നില്ല. രണ്ടുപേരും കൂട്ടുകൂടാൻ കുറേ ശ്രമം നടത്തി. എന്നാൽ മറ്റ് കുട്ടികൾ ഇവരോടൊപ്പം കൂട്ടുകൂടാൻ ഒരു താല്പര്യവും കാണിച്ചില്ല. ഉച്ചയ്ക്ക് ഭക്ഷണം കഴിക്കുന്ന സമയം അവർ പരസ്പരം തങ്ങളുടെ സങ്കടങ്ങൾ പങ്കു വച്ചു. എങ്കിലും അവർ ശ്രമം തുടർന്നുകൊണ്ടേയിരുന്നു.

ഇതിനിടയിൽ അന്ന അവളുടെ സ്വഭാവം മാറ്റുകയും സാറയോടുള്ള കൂട്ട് കുറയ്ക്കുകയും ചെയ്തു. കാണാൻ ഭംഗിയുള്ള തന്റെ ക്ലാസ്സിലെ കുട്ടികളോട് കൂട്ടുകൂടാനാണ് അന്ന ഇങ്ങനെ ചെയ്തത്. കുട്ടിക്കാലം മുതൽ തന്നോട് കളിച്ചുവളർന്ന അന്ന ഇങ്ങനെ പെരുമാറിയപ്പോൾ സാറയ്ക്കത് സഹിക്കാൻ കഴിഞ്ഞില്ല. എങ്കിലും അവൾ തന്റെ സ്വഭാവം മാറ്റിയിരുന്നില്ല. പതിയെപ്പതിയെ മറ്റു കുട്ടികൾ സാറയോട് കൂട്ടുകൂടാനും അവളെ ഇഷ്ടപ്പെടാനും തുടങ്ങി. മറ്റുള്ളവരുടെ സ്നേഹം പിടിച്ചുപറ്റാൻ സാറ കള്ളം പറയാനും തുടങ്ങി. അതോടെ കള്ളം പറഞ്ഞ് കൂട്ടുകൂടാൻ വരുന്ന ഒരു കുട്ടിയെ കൂട്ടുകാരിയായി ഞങ്ങക്കുവേണ്ട എന്ന് പറഞ്ഞ് എല്ലാവരും അവളെ അകറ്റി. ഇതു കണ്ട് സാറയ്ക്ക് വിഷമമായി. അവൾ പറഞ്ഞു, 'നീ കള്ളം പറയുന്നത് തെറ്റാണ്. എന്നാൽ എന്റെ കുട്ടിക്കാല സുഹൃത്തിനെ എങ്ങനെയാ എനിക്ക് മറക്കാൻ കഴിയുക. എന്ത് നേടണമെങ്കിലും നീ നീതന്നെ ആകണം' ഇതു കേട്ട അന്നയ്ക്ക് തന്റെ തെറ്റ് മനസ്സിലായി. പിന്നീട് അന്നയ്ക്കും കൂട്ടുകാരെ കിട്ടുകയും രണ്ടുപേരും സന്തോഷത്തോടെ സ്കൂളിൽ പോകാനും തുടങ്ങി.

ഗുണപാഠം : മറ്റുള്ളവരെ ആകർഷിക്കാൻ നാം മറ്റാരുമാകേണ്ട, നാം തന്നെ ആയാൽ മതി.

ഞാൻ വായിച്ച പുസ്തകം

തെന്നാലി രാമൻ കഥകളിലെ രാമന്റെ എലിയെ പിടിക്കാനുള്ള സൂത്രം എന്ന ഉപകഥയെ കുറിച്ചുള്ള എന്റെ അഭിപ്രായം ആണ് ഞാൻ പറയുന്നത്.

രാമന്റെ വീട്ടിൽ എലി ശല്യം ഉണ്ടായിരുന്നു. അവ കൈയിൽ കിട്ടുന്നതെല്ലാം കടിച്ചുമുറിക്കുമായിരുന്നു. ഒടുവിൽ അവർ ഒരു പൂച്ചയെ വാങ്ങി. ആ പൂച്ച അവിടെയുണ്ടായിരുന്ന എല്ലാ എലികളെയും തിന്നുതീർത്തു. ഒടുവിൽ പ്രഭുവിന്റെയും പ്രഭ്വിയുടെയും വളർത്തുപക്ഷിയെ കൊന്നു. പ്രഭു പൂച്ചയെ പിടികൂടി. എലിയെ പിടിക്കാനുള്ള വിദ്യ തനിക്കറിയാമെന്നും രാമനോട് പറഞ്ഞു. ആ പൂച്ചയെ അവൻ തല്ലിക്കൊന്നു. പിറ്റേന്ന് അവന് ഒരു പെട്ടി കിട്ടി. അത് തുറന്നുനോക്കിയ ഉടനെ അതിൽനിന്ന് എലികൾ പുറത്തുവന്നു. രാമന്റെ പണി ആയിരുന്നു അത്. എലിയെ പിടിക്കാൻ അറിയാമെന്ന് പ്രഭു പറഞ്ഞത് നുണയായിരുന്നു. തന്റെ ബുദ്ധിയും കഴിവും കൊണ്ട് തന്നെയും തന്റെ കുടുംബത്തെയും ആപത്തിൽപെടുന്നവരെയും രക്ഷിക്കാൻ മിടുക്കുള്ളവനാണ് തെന്നാലി രാമൻ.

തെന്നാലിരാമൻ കഥകളോട് എനിക്ക് പ്രത്യേക ഇഷ്ടം തോന്നാൻ കാരണം, കഥകളിലെ നർമ്മരസവും രാമന്റെ കുശാഗ്രബുദ്ധിയും ആണ്.

ഓണം

ഓണം പ്രാഥമികമായി ദക്ഷിണേന്ത്യൻ സംസ്ഥാനമായ കേരളത്തിന്റെ വിളവെടുപ്പ് ഉത്സവമാണ്. ഇത് മഴക്കാലത്തിന്റെ അവസാനത്തെയും നെല്ല് വിളവെടുപ്പിന്റെ തുടക്കത്തെയും അടയാളപ്പെടുത്തുന്നു. മലയാളം കലണ്ടറിലെ കൊല്ലവർഷത്തിലെ ആദ്യ മാസമായ ചിങ്ങമാസത്തിൽ പത്ത് ദിവസങ്ങളിലായി ഇത് ആഘോഷിക്കുന്നു. ദാനശീലനായ ഭരണാധികാരി മഹാബലി രാജാവ്, തന്റെ പ്രജകളെ കാണാനെത്തുന്ന ദിവസത്തെ അനുസ്മരിപ്പിക്കുന്നതാണ് ഈ ഉത്സവം.

ഹിന്ദു പുരാണമനുസരിച്ച്, മഹാവിഷ്ണുവിന്റെ അഞ്ചാമത്തെ അവതാരമായ വാമനൻ, രാജാവിന്റെ മുന്നിൽ ഒരു ചെറിയ സന്യാസിയായി പ്രത്യക്ഷപ്പെടുകയും തന്റെ ആചാരം അനുഷ്ഠിക്കാൻ ഒരു തുണ്ട് ഭൂമി ആവശ്യപ്പെടുകയും ചെയ്തു. മഹാബലി സമ്മതിച്ചു. വാമനനെ സഹായിക്കാൻ തീരുമാനിച്ചു. വാമനൻ മൂന്ന് ചുവടുകൾ വച്ചു. ആദ്യത്തെ രണ്ട് ചുവടുകൊണ്ട് ഭൂമിയും ആകാശവും അളന്നു. മൂന്നാമത്തെ ചുവട് തന്റെ തലയിൽ ചവിട്ടാൻ മഹാബലി വാമനനോട് അഭ്യർത്ഥിച്ചു. വാമനൻ മഹാബലിയെ പാതാളത്തിലേക്ക് ചവിട്ടി താഴ്ത്തുന്നതിനു മുമ്പായി, വർഷത്തിലൊരിക്കൽ തന്റെ ആളുകളെ സന്ദർശിക്കാൻ വാമനാവതാരമായ മഹാവിഷ്ണു അദ്ദേഹത്തിന് അനുവാദം കൊടുത്തു. ആ ദിവസം നാം ഓണമായി ആഘോഷിക്കുന്നു.

ഓണത്തിന്റെ ഏറ്റവും ശ്രദ്ധേയമായ വശങ്ങളിലൊന്ന് എല്ലാവരെയും ഉൾക്കൊള്ളുന്ന അതിന്റെ സ്വഭാവമാണ്. ജാതിമത അതിർവരമ്പുകൾക്കതീതമായി കേരളത്തിലെ എല്ലാ തുറകളിലുമുള്ള ആളുകളെ ഒരുമിച്ചുകൊണ്ടുവരുന്നു. അവരുടെ പശ്ചാത്തലം പരിഗണിക്കാതെ, കേരളീയർ ആഘോഷങ്ങളിൽ പങ്കുചേരുന്നു, കൂട്ടായ്മ വളർത്തുന്നു. പരമ്പരാഗത നൃത്തങ്ങളായ തുമ്പി തുള്ളൽ, തിരുവാതിര കളി, പുലിക്കളി വടംവലി, അത്തപ്പൂക്കളം, പ്രസിദ്ധമായ വള്ളംകളി (ചുണ്ടൻ വള്ളം) എന്നിവയുൾപ്പെടെ വിപുലമായ സാംസ്കാരിക പരിപാടികളാണ് ഉത്സവത്തിന്റെ സവിശേഷത.

വിളവെടുപ്പിനോടുള്ള സമൃദ്ധിയുടെയും നന്ദിയുടെയും പ്രതീകമായി വാഴയിലയിൽ വിളമ്പുന്ന വൈവിധ്യമാർന്ന സസ്യാഹാര വിഭവങ്ങൾ അടങ്ങിയ ഓണസദ്യ എന്ന മഹത്തായ വിരുന്നിലാണ് ആഘോഷങ്ങൾ അവസാനിക്കുന്നത്. വീടുകൾ അലങ്കരിക്കൽ, പരമ്പരാഗത വിഭവങ്ങൾ തയ്യാറാക്കൽ, ക്ഷേത്രദർശനം എന്നിവയെല്ലാം ഓണച്ചടങ്ങുകളിൽ ഉൾപ്പെടുന്നു. അത്തം മുതൽ ആരംഭിക്കുന്ന ഉത്സവം തിരുവോണത്തോടെ അവസാനിക്കുന്നു. ഓരോ ദിവസവും പ്രത്യേക ആചാരങ്ങളും ചടങ്ങുകളും ഉത്സവ ചൈതന്യം വർദ്ധിപ്പിക്കും. ഈ പ്രദേശത്തെ കാർഷിക ജീവിതശൈലിയും, ജനങ്ങളും അവരുടെ ഭൂമിയും തമ്മിലുള്ള ആഴത്തിലുള്ള ബന്ധം പ്രതിഫലിപ്പിക്കുന്ന ആചാരങ്ങൾ പലതും പാരമ്പര്യത്തിൽ മുങ്ങിനിൽക്കുന്നു. പ്രാദേശിക വിനോദസഞ്ചാരത്തെയും വാണിജ്യത്തെയും പ്രോത്സാഹിപ്പിക്കുന്നതിനാൽ ഓണത്തിന് കാര്യമായ

സാമ്പത്തിക സ്വാധീനമുണ്ട്. നിരവധി ആളുകൾ അതിന്റെ സാംസ്കാരിക പൈതൃകത്തെ പ്രോത്സാഹിപ്പിക്കുന്നു. ചുരുക്കത്തിൽ, ഓണം ഒരു ഉത്സവം മാത്രമല്ല; കേരളത്തിന്റെ സമ്പന്നമായ സാംസ്കാരിക പൈതൃകം, കാർഷിക സമൃദ്ധി, സാമൂദായിക സൗഹാർദ്ദം എന്നിവയുടെ ആഘോഷം കൂടിയാണ്. ഇത്, സ്വദേശത്തും വിദേശത്തുമുള്ള കേരളീയർ ഒരു പ്രിയപ്പെട്ട ഒരാഘോഷമാക്കി മാറ്റുന്നു.

माँ की प्यारी डाट

जब भी माँ की डाट से रूठे ,
ऐसा लगता जैसे सब सपने टूटे
जब मेरे चारों तरफ था अँधेरा
याद आने लगा मुझे माँ का चेहरा ।
न किसी ने लोरी गाकर सुनाई ,
माँ के बिन हर तरफ उदासी थी छाई
माँ की झप्पी के बिन लगी ये रात अधूरी
बर्दाश नहीं हुई मुझसे ये दूरी
कम्बल से निकलकर मैं गई माँ के पास
माँ से माफ़ी मांगकर हुआ हुआ मुझसे एहसास
कि माँ जितना भी डाटे या ना करे हमसे बात
सबसे ज़्यादा प्यार तुमसे वही करती है ,
देगी ज़िन्दगी भर का साथ ।

ദുരിതം വന്ന വഴി

അന്ന് ഏകദേശം രാത്രി 2 മണിയായി കാണും. ഉറക്കത്തിൽ എന്തോ ഒരു ശബ്ദം കേട്ടു കണ്ണ് ചിമ്മി ഞാൻ നോക്കിയപ്പോൾ അമ്മ നല്ല ഉറക്കം. ഞാൻ പതുക്കെ എണീറ്റ് ജനലിനടുത്തേക്ക് നോക്കി. ഇരുട്ടിൽ എങ്ങും " നിലവിളികൾ മാത്രം" അതിശക്തമായ കാറ്റും മഴയും ആരുടെയൊക്കെയോ ബഹളം, അങ്ങോട്ടും, ഇങ്ങോട്ടും ആളുകൾ ഓടുന്നു. എന്താണ് അവിടെ സംഭവിച്ചത് എന്ന് മനസ്സിലായില്ല.

ഞാൻ വേഗം പോയി അമ്മയെ വിളിച്ചു. അമ്മ എണീറ്റ് വാതിൽതുറന്ന് നോക്കിയപ്പോൾ വീടിനുള്ളിൽ മുഴുവൻ ചെളിവെള്ളം കൊണ്ട് നിറഞ്ഞിരിക്കുന്നു. വീണ്ടും പൊട്ടിത്തെറിക്കുന്നതു പോലുള്ള ശബ്ദം അത്രമാത്രമേ ഓർമ്മയുള്ളൂ "എല്ലാം പോയി, എല്ലാം നശിച്ചു."

"വലിയ ഒരു ദുരന്തം" ആണ് നടക്കുന്നത്. "ഉരുൾപൊട്ടൽ എന്ന മഹാ ദുരന്തം" ഒരു നാടിനെ മുഴുവൻ വിഴുങ്ങുന്നു എന്ന യാഥാർത്ഥ്യം ഞാൻ തിരിച്ചറിഞ്ഞു. എന്തു ചെയ്യണമെന്നറിയാതെ നിൽക്കുമ്പോൾ എന്റെ കുടുംബത്തിലുള്ളവർ അതിന്റെ ഇരകളായി മാറിക്കഴിഞ്ഞു.പിന്നീട് എനിക്ക് ഒന്നും ഓർമ്മയില്ല. ബോധം വന്നപ്പോൾ ഞാൻ കാണുന്നത് പട്ടാളക്കാരും, അല്ലാത്ത ആളുകളും പലരുടേയും ജീവൻ രക്ഷിക്കാൻ പാടുപെടുന്നതാണ്. എന്റെ അമ്മയേയും അച്ഛനേയും സഹോദരങ്ങളേയും കുറിച്ച് ചോദിച്ചപ്പോൾ അവർ എന്നെ ആശ്വസിപ്പിച്ചതല്ലാതെ ഒന്നും പറഞ്ഞില്ല.

അവർ തിരിച്ചു വരുമെന്ന പ്രതീക്ഷയോടെ ഞാൻ ഇന്നും കാത്തിരിക്കുന്നു.

കഥ

ചോദ്യം: ഞാനൊരു മരമായാൽ !

കരഞ്ഞുകൊണ്ടാണ് ഞാൻ അന്നെഴുന്നേറ്റത്. എഴുന്നേറ്റ ഉടനെ ഞാൻ അമ്മയുടെ അടുത്തേക്ക് ഓടി. കരഞ്ഞുകൊണ്ടിരുന്ന എന്നെ അമ്മ ആശ്വസിപ്പിച്ചു. തലോടിക്കൊണ്ട് അമ്മ എന്നോട് ചോദിച്ചു: "എന്താ മോനെ മുത്തൂ കരയുന്നേ". "ഇന്നലെ ഞാനൊരു സ്വപ്നം കണ്ടമ്മേ. സ്വപ്നത്തിൽ ഞാനൊരു മരമായിരുന്നു". ഞാൻ ഏങ്ങി കരഞ്ഞു കൊണ്ട് അമ്മയോട് പറഞ്ഞു. "അതിലെന്താ ഇത്ര വിഷമിക്കാൻ. നീ കരയാതെ, എന്താ സ്വപ്നം കണ്ടത് എന്ന് പറ". ഇത്രയും പറഞ്ഞതിനുശേഷം അമ്മ എന്നെ മടിയിൽ കയറ്റി ഇരുത്തി.

"സ്വപ്നത്തിൽ ഞാനൊരു വലിയ മരമായിരുന്നു". ഞാൻ അമ്മയോടായി പറഞ്ഞു തുടങ്ങി. എവിടുന്നോ വന്ന ഒരു കുളിർ കാറ്റ്, എന്റെ ഇലകളെ, തട്ടി തഴുകി പോയി. അപ്പോൾ ഒരു കുരുവി, എന്റെ ചില്ലയിൽ, ഉണ്ടായിരുന്ന, അവളുടെ കൂട്ടിലേയ്ക്ക് പറന്നു വന്നു. തന്റെ കൊക്കിലുണ്ടായിരുന്ന ഭക്ഷണം കൂട്ടിലുണ്ടായിരുന്ന തന്റെ കുഞ്ഞുങ്ങൾക്ക് കൊടുത്തതിനുശേഷം, അവൾ അവരെ പറക്കാൻ പഠിപ്പിക്കാൻ ശ്രമിച്ചു. അധികസമയം കഴിയുന്നതിന് മുമ്പുതന്നെ, ആ കുരുവിയും അവളുടെ കുഞ്ഞുങ്ങളും എന്റെ ചുറ്റും പാറി പറക്കുകയായിരുന്നു." ഞാൻ തുടർന്നു. "അപ്പോഴേയ്ക്കും സായാഹ്നം എത്തിയിരുന്നു. അമ്മ കുരുവി, പറന്നു കളിച്ചിരുന്ന അവളുടെ കുഞ്ഞുങ്ങളെ കൂട്ടിലേയ്ക്കു നയിച്ചു. കുറച്ചു സമയത്തിനുശേഷം, അടുത്തുള്ള മൈതാനത്ത് കളിച്ചു ക്ഷീണിച്ച കുറച്ചു കുട്ടികൾ എന്റെ അടുത്തേയ്ക്കു വന്നു. ഞാൻ ഫലങ്ങൾ നല്കുന്ന വലിയ മരമായതിനാൽ, കുട്ടികൾ എന്റെ തണലിൽ ഇരിക്കുകയും എന്റെ ഫലങ്ങളും കായ്കളും ആസ്വദിച്ചു തിന്നുകയും ചെയ്തു. കുറച്ചു നേരം അവിടെ തന്നെ നിന്നതിനുശേഷം കുട്ടികളെല്ലാം അവരവരുടെ വീടുകളിലേക്ക് മടങ്ങിപ്പോയി.

സമയം രാത്രി ആവാറായി. അപ്പോൾ രണ്ടുപേർ എന്റെ അടുത്തേക്ക് വന്നു. അവരുടെ കൈയിൽ കോടാലികൾ ഉണ്ടായിരുന്നു. എന്റെ അടുത്ത് വന്ന് അവർ എന്നെ വെട്ടിമുറിച്ച് നിലത്തേയ്ക്കിട്ടു ". ഞാൻ കരഞ്ഞുകൊണ്ട് നിർത്തി. "ഇതിനായിരുന്നോ മോൻ കരഞ്ഞത്?". അമ്മ എന്നോട് ചോദിച്ചു. അതെ എന്ന അർത്ഥത്തിൽ ഞാൻ തലകുലുക്കി. "സാരമില്ല. മോൻ അതോർത്തു വിഷമിക്കേണ്ട". അമ്മ തുടർന്നു. മോൻ സ്വപ്നത്തിൽ കണ്ടത് യാഥാർത്ഥ്യം കൂടിയാണ്. എത്രയോ മരങ്ങളാണ് മുറിക്കപ്പെടുന്നത്. എന്നാൽ മരങ്ങൾ മുറിയ്ക്കാനേ പാടില്ല എന്ന നിയമം വയ്ക്കാനും പാടില്ല. പക്ഷേ, നമുക്ക് ഒരു കാര്യം ചെയ്യാൻ പറ്റും. "ഒരു തൈ നടാൻ" ആകാംഷയോടെ അമ്മയെ നോക്കിയ എന്നോട് അമ്മ പറഞ്ഞു: "അതെ, ഒരു തൈ നടാം. മോന്റെ എല്ലാ പിറന്നാൾ ദിനത്തിലും നമുക്ക് ഓരോ മരത്തിന്റെ തൈകൾ നടാൻ ശ്രമിക്കാം. അങ്ങനെ നമ്മുടെ ഭൂമിക്ക് ഒരു പുതുജീവൻ നൽകാം". അതുകേട്ട് തുള്ളിച്ചാടി ഞാൻ മുറ്റത്തേക്കോടി...

गणतंत्र दिवस (Republic Day) भारत का एक महत्वपूर्ण राष्ट्रीय उत्सव है, जो हर साल 26 जनवरी को मनाया जाता है। यह दिन भारतीय संविधान के लागू होने का प्रतीक है। 26 जनवरी 1950 को भारतीय संविधान पूरी तरह से लागू हुआ और भारत एक लोकतांत्रिक गणराज्य बना। इस दिन को मनाने के लिए देशभर में कई प्रकार के कार्यक्रम आयोजित किए जाते हैं, जिनमें मुख्य रूप से नई दिल्ली में राजपथ पर होने वाली परेड प्रमुख है।

गणतंत्र दिवस का पर्व भारतीय स्वतंत्रता संग्राम और भारतीय लोकतंत्र की ताकत को याद करने का अवसर होता है। 26 जनवरी 1950 को जब भारतीय संविधान लागू हुआ, तब भारतीय लोकतंत्र की नींव पड़ी और देश को अपने संविधान के अनुसार शासन प्राप्त हुआ। संविधान ने भारत को एक संप्रभु, समाजवादी, धर्मनिरपेक्ष, लोकतांत्रिक गणराज्य के रूप में परिभाषित किया।

दिल्ली में हर साल 26 जनवरी को भव्य गणतंत्र दिवस परेड आयोजित की जाती है, जिसमें भारतीय सेना, नौसेना और वायु सेना के दस्ते शामिल होते हैं। इस परेड में देश की सांस्कृतिक विविधता, कला, और परंपराओं का भी प्रदर्शन किया जाता है। राष्ट्रपति, जो देश के सर्वोच्च सम्मान के प्रतीक होते हैं, वह इस परेड की अध्यक्षता करते हैं और राष्ट्रध्वज फहराते हैं। इस दिन भारतीय शौर्य और वीरता को भी सम्मानित किया जाता है, जैसे वीरता पुरस्कारों की घोषणा और अन्य सम्मान प्रदान करना।

गणतंत्र दिवस की यह परंपरा न केवल भारतीयों के लिए गर्व का विषय है, बल्कि यह पूरे देश को एकता, अखंडता और लोकतांत्रिक मूल्यों की ओर प्रेरित करती है। यह दिन हमें अपने संविधान के महत्व और लोकतांत्रिक अधिकारों की याद दिलाता है।

इस दिन को पूरे भारत में धूमधाम और उत्साह के साथ मनाया जाता है और यह हमारे देश की संप्रभुता और स्वतंत्रता का प्रतीक बन चुका है।

ANOTHER HEART

Iam like the skin
That never left
But was always scratched and bled
I am like the hair
That grew its love
Only to be cut
I am like the eyes
That pours its rain
Of pain and love that went blind
I am like the voice
At loss of words
From the pain it took, to break another silence
I am like the ear
That was deaf
For another to be heard
I am like the heart,
Which was killed like a man
And shattered like a glass
But still cared yet, for another heart.

THE LAST TREE

In the shade of a tree
A fallen leaf
In the shelter of a house
A few fallen trees
In a world once so green
Feels a forgotten breeze
In the past, so happy
All standing with life
In the present, the same forest
Yet with only one happy leaf
In the future
All will cry
For the death of something
So rare, A Tree!
